CREATE IN THREE DAYS

Thank you for considering our wonderful Create in Three Days course! Whether you are completely new to performing, or an experienced young actor, we would love you to join us for Summer Schools. If you do book a place with us, we will send out a detailed handbook with more specific information prior to the course. We hope the below will answer any questions you have at this stage, but if you have further queries, please don't hesitate to contact us via summerschools@rosetheatre.org.

Where is the course held?

The Create in Three Days courses do not take place at the Rose, but at a local external venue: Bullen Hall, in Hampton Wick. This is because the Rose is a working 800 seat theatre and performances and maintenance will be taking place over the summer. The venues we use are local to the Rose, trusted by us and frequently used for our youth theatre classes. Students will still receive the amazing teaching and creativity of our professional Rose Youth Theatre directors. If your child is interested in term time classes which are held at the Rose, please contact participate@rosetheatre.org.

What does the course consist of?

Create in Three Days is full of fun drama based activities, crafts, exercises and skills. Small groups will work with a Rose Youth Theatre director and assistant for the duration of the course and create a short piece of theatre to be shared with families on the final day. Each week the course team will select a theme for work to be created around. The three days are all about meeting new people, learning drama and performance skills and having fun! The course runs Wednesday - Friday 10am - 4pm.

Which group will I be in?

We are running one group this year, for ages 7-10. Our teaching staff will tailor the content of the three days to suit the range of ages involved.

How does booking work?

You will be able to book and pay for your course via the Rose Theatre website. In your confirmation email you will then be asked to provide further information via a google form. We require this form before the course begins.

Can I be placed in a group with friends or siblings?

Absolutely, if you are booking the same dates you will automatically be placed in the same group, unless we reach full capacity for a course. In this case we will add you to a waiting list, and will contact you in case of cancellations.

Who facilitates the course?

We have a fantastic team of professional freelance directors facilitating our courses, with high levels of training and industry experience to offer. All directors and assistants receive extensive safeguarding training prior to the start of the course, and there will be a first aider on site at all times.

Do I need any performing experience to attend?

No, we accept bookings from anyone with any level of experience. All young people are welcome!

Do I need to bring anything?

We ask students to bring their own bags or backpacks, with bottled water and a pack lunch for each day. Our rehearsal spaces will be nut-free zones, so we ask that you don't bring anything containing nuts. We will supply any crafting and course materials. A reminder of what to bring will be sent in your course welcome pack, the week prior to the start date.

Can I leave the building by myself?

Our policy is that students on this course are not permitted to go home alone, a parent/guardian will need to collect. Lunchtimes are also onsite and supervised at all times. Staff will wait to see an adult before releasing students at the end of each day.

How much does it cost?

Each place on our Create in Three Days course costs £200.

Do you offer any discounts?

We offer a sibling discount which is 25% off the second course fee (applies to the lowest fee if also booking a 'Play in a Week') and a discount for current RYT members.

Sibling discounts must be processed with our Box Office team either in person or over the phone (020 8174 0090), and we will require a registration for each student.

Current members in our RYTA or RYC courses can request a promo code to be used online by emailing summerschools@rosetheatre.org. The code cannot be applied retrospectively, please request this before you complete your booking.

I can't afford the course fee. Do I have any options?

Inclusion and opportunities for all are at the heart of what we do at Rose Participate. Bursaries are available on request to help cover the cost of courses for those who may struggle with the fees. While anyone is free to apply for the bursary fund to help support participation, priority will be given to those facing financial hardship. Bursaries will be offered to fully or partially cover course fees. Mentoring and support are also offered alongside financial support.

In order to apply for a bursary, please complete the bursary form (available here) and return to lucy.dennis-morrell@rosetheatre.org.

What's your cancellation policy?

- In the unlikely event that we must cancel the course before the start date you will be entitled to credit for a future course or a full refund.
- If your child is unable to attend due to illness before the course begins, you will be entitled to credit for a future course or a full refund. For this to apply you must inform us before the start of the first day of the course you have signed up for.
- If your child begins the course and becomes unwell and is unable to continue, you will be entitled to credit or partial refund. This will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis.
- If you decide to leave the course for any other reason after the course begins, we are not able to offer a refund, but we may be able to offer you a full or partial credit. This will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis.
- In the unlikely event that we must cancel the course mid-way through, you will be offered a credit or partial refund. This will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis. The reason for this is that we are a not-for-profit organisation and are committed to paying our freelance staff in the event of cancellation.

I have access requirements. Is this course right for me?

Inclusion and opportunities for all are at the heart of what we do at Rose Participate, and we would love to make this course work for you. If you have any specific access requirements of any kind, please do include this information when booking so we can ensure to meet them. If you would like to discuss your requirements with us in further detail, or talk to us about the course prior to booking, please don't hesitate to get in touch with us at summerschools@rosetheatre.org.

More information on our policies, benefits, bursaries and access can be found here: Policies and More

I would like to book a certain week, but I know I can't make it on one of the days. Can I still attend?

We do ask that you refrain from booking unless you can attend the full three days. Course time is limited, so it makes it difficult for the directors and the rest of your group when a student is missing!

We do hope the above has answered any queries you may have, but if you have any further questions, please don't hesitate to get in contact via summerschools@rosetheatre.org.
